Discussion Questions:

1. Kevin DeYoung states that “Scripture doesn’t tell us everything we might want to know. But it tells us everything we truly need to know.” Give the group some reasons why YOU think God chose not to reveal everything we WANT to know.
2. What are some actions that would reveal idolatry towards a pastor? Actions that would reveal indifference towards a pastor?
3. Obviously, Christians need both orthodoxy and orthopraxy. Which one is easier for you? Which is the one you are most comfortable with? Why? What steps can you take this week to become more balanced in your weak area?
4. What are some areas in American culture and life that Christians seem to be confused about? Why is there confusion? How do we become more discerning?
5. The Resurrection of Jesus is central to the Christian Faith. Why does this doctrine give us hope? How should this change the way we think about present and future issues like death, suffering, pain, relationships, fear, etc.?
